Union was initially placed on SCRAM, an electronic alcohol detection device, which confirmed continued positive alcohol use by the offender. In response, the probation office referred Union to Alcoholics Anonymous meetings and intensive outpatient drug and alcohol treatment at the Jersey City Medical Center. Union has been actively participating in substance abuse treatment since April 27, 2011. As such, the U.S. Probation Office recommends presentation of this document to the offender as a formal judicial written reprimand from the Court.
